Sustainable Development Goals

In April, Tony's signed the call for a sustainable coalition agreement. Along with over 150 other companies and civil society organizations, we are insisting on a sustainable coalition agreement in which all policies are assessed based on the Sustainable Development Goals of the United Nations: sustainable development goals for a better world. You're not going to be surprised that Tony's supports this entire list of 17 development goals, but our mission focuses the most on:

- ending poverty, because it is one of the main reasons for the use of child labor
- decent jobs and economic growth
- sustainable consumption and production
- tackling climate change
- education: indirectly through support of the Chocolonely Foundation.
